

planner

Gallery, Lenah Valley, from 1.30-5pm this weekend into October 31.

The Colour Circle group's Spring Collection and sale of paintings is on show until Monday October 11. The exhibition is at the Sidespace Gallery, Salamanca Arts Centre, open daily 10.30am to 4.30pm.

Timepiece celebrates the works of six Tasmanian emerging contemporary artists. The exhibition will be at the Cast Gallery, 27 Tasma St, North Hobart, until October 10. The gallery is open from noon to 5pm Wednesday to Sunday.

An exhibition of drawings from Lloyd Rees's European Sketchbook will be on display at the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery until October 17.

ON sale

BUY or sell marine gear this weekend at the Bellerive Yacht Club's annual Bosun's Locker sale. Sellers can take priced items to the BYC tomorrow between 2pm and 5pm.

The sale opens at 10am on Sunday and runs until 2pm. For more information phone 6244 1353.

ON screen

CHECK out the Tasmanian Travelling Picture Show presented by Screen Tasmania as part of bicentenary celebrations. The show features footage from 1910 up until the early 80s.

This is the last weekend the Travelling Picture will be in Hobart, at The Peacock Theatre, 77 Salamanca Place, Battery Point, before touring 16 regional centres around the state.

For information, prices and bookings, phone 1800 001 190 or visit www.travellingpictureshow.com.au

ON the fly

MOST people have tried a gentle throw of a frisbee at the beach or in a park. But for a display of truly spectacular skills, why not head to Wentworth Park Hockey Fields in Howrah tomorrow for the sixth annual Tasmanian Two-Hat Ultimate Frisbee Tournament.

Competition starts at 9am, with finals starting about 2pm and finishing about 5pm.